Commander
001st District

FROM: Sgt. Robert J. Belczak # 1088 001st District

SUBJECT: CR Initiation, Log # 1049689

In summary, The R/Sgt is initiating the CR investigation after being verbally told by Officer [REDACTED] #12388 of improprieties by a 006th District beat officer, and 006th District desk officers.

Officer [REDACTED] stated she received several parking tickets on her vehicle that appear to be written improperly. An Officer with Star # 19352 wrote the complainant three tickets in the span of sixteen minutes on the same vehicle with two different license plate numbers.

The complainant also stated that she came into the 006th District to complain about the tickets she was treated rudely and unprofessional. Complainant stated that she asked for a sergeant but the desk officers did not call for one, but instead sent her to see the acting desk sergeant. Complainant stated that the acting desk sergeant did not help her, but instead made a mockery of the situation. The complainant asked to see the Watch Commander but was not allowed to see the Watch Commander. Finally an unknown female officer at the desk told the complainant to get the fuck out of the station and that she was lucky that the complainant didn't get locked up.
